G. O. P. SENATOR McNARY WANTS LEAGUE ACCEPTED WITHOUT AMENDMENTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—(By the A. P.)—A treaty was before the senate today, supporting the League of Nations in a speech today, Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, urged that it be accepted without any such amendments or reservations as would "alter the splendid purpose of the covenant or weaken it so far as it affects our duty."

The senate, said the speaker, could not have adopted certain "reservations" in the form of amendments, but should not enlarge the covenant by making reservations that would vitiate important features. Article I, he said, "is the pillar section" of the league.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—A day of speech-making on the peace treaty was before the senate today, four senators having given notice that they would make prepared addresses on the subject. Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, who was to appear first in support of the League of Nations, was to be followed by Senators Messers, Republican, New Hampshire, and Johnson, South Dakota, and Beckham, Kentucky, Democrats. Meanwhile, the foreign relations committee still had before it at today's meeting the request of President Wilson, that it approve immediate approval of an American representative on the relations committee, to serve provisionally while the treaty remains unsettled. Staidman Lodge and most of the other Republican members oppose giving such approval while most of the Democratic members favor it.

President Back At White House Desk

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—President Wilson was sufficiently recovered today from his indisposition to resume conferences with Republican senators at the White House without objection from Rear Admiral Gray T. Grayson, his personal physician.

Admiral Grayson said the president was in no pain, but that he still was extremely weak.

"The president is sitting up and now reading a paper," said Admiral Grayson, "and he probably will be up at least until lunch time. He was very anxious to get to work this morning, but I thought it would do him no harm to see one or two people. If he

Five Lives Sacrificed In Washington Race Riots

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Another night of race rioting found the national capital today commencing the largest casualty list it has had since the rioting began on the night of March 3, 1918, when the crowd completely over ran them and all but mobbed the suffragists parading on Pennsylvania avenue.

The score of casualty in last night's fighting was largely in favor of the negroes, who, when the extra strong cordons of police and troops gathered on Pennsylvania avenue and the downtown section transferred their activities to the lesser guarded districts.

From trolley cars and swiftly moving automobiles negro desperadoes in parties, singly and in pairs, rained revolver shots into groups of whites whenever they found them, and all night there was scattered firing from houses in which negroes, terror-stricken, but not quelled, had barricaded themselves.

Today the local authorities are conferring with war department officials on measures to stop the rioting. Suggestions are being made that troops be brought in to thoroughly guard the city which the police maintain they are unable to do because of insufficient numbers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Proclamation of martial law may be necessary to end race rioting here, which resulted last night in the killing of five persons and injury of at least fifty others. Several days of disorders, following a wave of attacks on white women, robberies and assaults by negroes, culminated in a series of race battles during the night hours with which the police were unable to cope fully, despite the aid of military personnel.

Several of the injured were reported fatally hurt this morning and at least 200 rioters were under arrest. The dead include Detective Sergeant Harry Wilson, shot through the heart by a negro girl when he entered a house from (Continued on Page Eight)

HUGE AIRCRAFT EXPLODES WHILE FLYING OVER CHICAGO INVESTIGATION BEING MADE

CHICAGO, July 22.—Official inquiry was started today by States Attorney Mackin Horn, to fix responsibility for the explosion and collapse of the dirigible which crashed through the roof of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank yesterday afternoon, killing eleven persons and injuring 25 others.

Seven employees of the Goodhue Tire and Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, owners of the dirigible, have been detained pending a decision as to whether charges of criminal carelessness should be filed against them.

Among those detained are Jack Bodner, pilot of the dirigible, who escaped by jumping with a parachute and W. C. Young, in charge of the aeronautics department of the Goodhue company.

Of the eleven dead, nine were employees of the bank and two passengers in the dirigible. Five persons were in the dirigible at the time of the accident and three escaped. When the balloon crashed through the skylight of the bank at 5 o'clock, more than 200 employees, mostly girls, were at work.

The big balloon, with its five passengers, was making its sudden trip above the city in the interest of an amusement park.

According to witnesses, a spurt of flame appeared at the stern, above the engines. In a moment there was a puff of smoke and the flames at lacked the big egg-shaped gas bag. Almost simultaneously four parachutes leaped from the airship. Three got clear of the burning craft, but the fourth was caught in the falling balloon and burned. Its passenger, Carl Weaver, mechanic of Akron, O., plunging to death.

Carl Davenport, publicity man for the amusement park, and one time a sporting writer, did not jump from the machine. His body was hurled through the bank roof and burned to a crisp.

Harry Wacker, of Akron, O., chief mechanic of the dirigible, was one of those who came down alive. His back was broken, however, and he is not expected to live.

Milton G. Norton, a photographer, employed on a morning newspaper, also landed, but in doing so his legs were broken and his condition is critical.

H. A. Bodner, civilian pilot, was the only member of the ill-fated airship to land without injuries.

Five of the nine killed in the bank were women employees, three were men and one a boy. There were but two exits in the iron cage in the center of the bank and as the wreckage of the balloon crashed through the skylight to the floor, there was no time for employees to escape. The tanks exploded and the interior of the bank was a puff of smoke and the flames at

TURNED DOWN PRESIDENT'S REQUEST

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—In response to President Wilson's request that it approve provisional appointment of an American representative on the reparations commission, the senate foreign relations committee today adopted a declaration that until the treaty is ratified "no power exists" to carry out its provisions.

The declaration, in the form of a resolution by Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, was adopted without a record vote, though the committee previously had divided eight to seven in favor of substituting the Knox proposal for one which would have left open the question of this president's authority. In this vote Senator McNamara, Republican, of North Dakota, joined the Democrats in the negative.

A motion by Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, of Nebraska, to add later a declaration of the president's power to commission would have wide powers in fixing the reparation to be demanded of Germany and the president had written the committee that he considered it important to American business interests that the United States be represented.

After it had adopted Senator Knox's resolution the committee resumed its preliminary reading of the treaty text.

GERMAN TREATY PASSED THRU HOUSE OF COMMONS WITHOUT AN AMENDMENT

LONDON, July 22.—At what was virtually an all-night session, the house of commons completed its consideration of both the German peace treaty and the Anglo-French convention.

The German treaty passed through all its stages without amendment.

In concluding his speech on the treaty, Premier Lloyd George while making no claim of perfection for it, expressed confidence that any defects would be remedied by the League of Nations. Notwithstanding its imperfections, the premier declared, the treaty would stand as a "lighthouse" in the deep and a warning to nations and rulers of nations against the peril which the German empire shattered itself against.

Then at 3 a. m. the Anglo-French pact was taken up and the bill approving it was unanimously adopted.

THEY'LL SIGN THOUGH

PARIS, July 22.—(Havas)—Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian peace delegation, declared he would "not sign engagements which he knew could not be executed." In concluding on the peace terms, prior to his departure from St. Germain for Berlin according to morning news.

Liberals Believe President Will Veto Prohibition Bill As Passed By The House

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill, described by members opposing it as drastic enough to inflame a presidential veto, finally passed today by the house.

The vote was taken after a motion by Representative Jone, Democrat, Missouri, to recommit the bill had been defeated, 255 to 138. Nearly every member of the house was in attendance and there was so much noise during the roll call that Republican Leader Mondell was recorded as supporting the Jone motion. He was permitted to change his vote.

The vote on the passage of the bill was 287 to 109, with three members voting present.

NO PROSECUTIONS FOR KILLING OF AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, told the house rules committee today that since his appointment three years ago, about 600 Americans had been killed in Mexico without a single prosecution being made by the Mexican authorities.

Replying to questions by Chairman Campbell, Mr. Fletcher said with approval of recommitment of the Carranza government by the United States would only increase the turmoil in the southern republic. He added that he did not know of any revolutionary leader capable of establishing a permanent government.

Ambassador Fletcher said he had not noticed any special anti-American feeling in Mexico and explained that the presence of more American citizens there than other foreigners probably accounted for the greater number of outrages affecting Americans.

Miss Geneva O'Neal, of Gallia avenue, will leave Thursday for Oxford for a week's visit with her sisters, Misses Golda and Gwendoline O'Neal.

O. D. Foster

Scioto county's list of native sons was decreased by one today when the final summons took from among the well known citizens of the city, O. D. Foster, contracting painter, death coming at his home, 720 Sixth street, at 9:30 o'clock this morning after an extended illness. He had a legion of friends who will learn of his death with genuine sorrow.

Mr. Foster had not been in the best of health for some time and three weeks ago entered Hempstead hospital, where he underwent an operation. He rallied from the operation and two weeks ago was removed to his home. About five days ago he took a decided change for the worse and grew gradually weaker until the end came this morning, with his loved ones at his bedside. He suffered severe pains the last few days, the pains being so severe that he could not talk at times. Death came as a relief to hours of suffering.

Otho D. Foster was born February 22, 1862, on the West Side, and was a son of Otho D. and Lucinda Shaw Foster. He attended the rural school and when about the age of 16 came to Portsmouth with his parents. He finished his schooling here and then took up the work of painter which he followed the remainder of his life. He had been a contracting painter for many years.

In 1887, while in the west a short time, he was married at Omaha, Neb., to Edith North. They settled in Portsmouth soon after their marriage. The deceased is survived by his wife, Edith, and two daughters, Edith and Virginia Foster, of Huntington. Mr. Foster had two brothers, James and William Foster, who never went a number of years ago. He never heard from them and they are probably dead.

The deceased was a member of the First Baptist church. He also belonged to the Sons of Veterans, who will have charge of the funeral, which will be held from the home Thursday morning with Rev. E. L. Averitt in charge. Burial in Greenlawn.

Want To Know Their Dog Catching Duties

Request was made today by the county commissioners to Prosecutor George W. Sheppard for a legal opinion in regard to their duties relative to enforcing the dog catching law.

The commissioners feel that they have already done their duty and refuse to go a notch further until the prosecutor says they must.

Commenting on the recommendations contained in the report of the recent grand jury in regard to the dog catching dispute, President John Bennett declared the recommendations most absurd and asserted that a certain official had thrown cold water on the investigation.

"For us to carry out the recommendations would be an outrage on the taxpayers of Scioto county, and we are opposed to going to the useless expense of buying a costly automobile and hiring an extra deputy sheriff for the purpose of catching a few dogs," Mr. Bennett said, and he added: "Why, to hear some officials talk, they would have us buy a big auto with upholstered seats and separate compartments for each dog caught; feed the catches the choicest cut of meat; employ a registered physician to chloroform those dogs required to be put to death and ending up with a funeral with an undertaker in charge for each dog."

The sale of dog tags has almost entirely stopped, according to Auditor S. D. Eckhart. Meanwhile the county treasury suffers while the dispute goes on and the good and substantial dog pound, erected at much expense, in the southeast corner of the county barn, is still dogless.

Pleads Not Guilty

Admiral Erwin, East Portsmouth young man, charged in an indictment with murdering his companion, Herman J. Lambert, on May 21 last, at a summer camp at the head of Browers Hollow, appeared before Judge Thomas in common pleas court today with his attorney, R. F. Kumble, and entered a plea of not guilty. The youthful defendant was released on $1,000 bond, pending his trial, which will not likely be held until the September term of court.

Snyder Denies Guilt

William Snyder pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him with cutting to kill William Oble during a fight at New Boston on May 4 last. Snyder was released on bond. He will be defended by Attorney W. H. Sprague.

Says Husband Is Bootlegger

Declaring that her husband has been engaged in bootlegging whiskey for a long period of time and that he is now confined in the Williamson, W. Va., jail for violating the laws, Paula Anderson is seeking a divorce and alimony in an action instituted in common pleas court today through Attorney T. C. Beatty against John Anderson, whom she married Dec. 21, 1900, in this city.

In her petition the wife charges that Anderson has neglected her and their children for the past several years, and she asserts that his conduct has been such that she can no longer live with him as his wife. She asks custody of their four children.

Want Road Established

A petition which was presented to the county commissioners yesterday by Joseph Field and others for the establishment of a county road in Jefferson township, was taken under advisement by the board.

The proposed road starts at J. F. B. Sletten's residence on the Lucasville-Harrisonville Pike and running through the lands of Steinboeck and others, connecting with the county road near the residence of C. E. Grimshaw a distance of 2 miles, and being a part of Rural Route No. 4 out of Lucasville.

Case Continued

Judge Thomas yesterday after hearing the evidence offered by the defendant in support of his cross-petition in the divorce suit of Tessie Shoemaker against Oscar Shoemaker, Sciotoville brickworker, continued the case until the plaintiff can be brought into court to present her side of the case. In her petition she charged Shoemaker with cruelty.

Shoemaker told the court that his wife left him for another man named William Reynolds and he declared the pair had improper conduct. Attorney Theo. K. Funk for Shoemaker and Attorneys Milner, Miller & Seal for the wife.

Seeking a Divorce

Declaring that her husband repeatedly told her that she did not have common sense and threatened to burn her if she did not leave, Mary Newman is seeking a divorce in a suit filed in common pleas court today through Attorney R. F. Kumble against Albert Newman, whom she married Dec. 18, 1915.

The wife in her petition alleges that Newman frequently assaulted and beat her and that his treatment became such that she was compelled to leave him on Dec. 1, 1917, she says, and has not lived with him since. In addition to a divorce the plaintiff further asks for alimony and custody of their 2-year old child. The defendant is a showworker employed at the Excelsior factory.

Fully 15,000 miles more remain in the tires, and this the Buchle people confidently expect to get—at the same time reducing their tire cost per mile to less than one-sixth of a cent.

Master Salesmen

with executive ability wanted

A manufacturer must secure distributors from certain districts in Ohio who will build their own selling organizations for the purpose of marketing a product with a knock out.

The distributor who secures territory must have financial responsibility, previous merchandising experience, be capable of building and managing a sales organization and willing to visit the factory to become thoroughly conversant with the manufacturing and selling process.

Territory will be allocated to you for a definite period of time. Opportunity for building a large profitable business with exceptional future possibilities.

The product is superior in quality to any of the kind. The profit margin is large enough to enable the distributor of a proposition that will present itself attractively to the salerman and the same time provide a very profitable business from their efforts.

Correspondence is especially invited of men who can qualify in above points and who are looking for a high-class selling proposition. All replies will be treated in strictest confidence.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

"Black Eyes"—The truest kind of love is full of absolute confidence, the love that is true. Love can not exist without that confidence. Unless you are positively certain of the man with whom you are engaged it would only cause you unhappiness through your own fault. The truth of the matter is, dear, you are too young to marry. In the old days when our fathers married so young life was not so complicated as it is now. Their struggles were seldom shared as the divorce court was not so frequently used.

Nowadays it is considered the height of folly to get married without a proper knowledge of the life one faces as a wife and mother. To be a good mother one must be equipped with the new duties. Are you? If you are a good housekeeper are you also a good manager? Have you studied modern social questions. Do you know how to raise a child—not necessarily in the old way but in the more enlightened way. This is the age of the child and particularly in this time after the war has so devastated the world and claimed so many men, the future depends on the mothers of the race.

It is an undertaking worthy of the deepest thought—this thing of getting married. I'll tell you though, I really think you are better able to get married and make a success of it than a boy of 20 is. He can't be settled down at that age. Wait awhile till he grows up.

HANGING ROCK WOMAN SEES OPPORTUNITY FOR SUCCESS

"I think Trenton is the best medicine I've ever taken and I'm sure it will help anyone who is a weakened and run down condition," Mrs. Mary Watkins, 43 years old, a well known resident of Hanging Rock, near here, said recently. Mrs. Watkins has lived in this vicinity for the past 30 years and she is well known here.

"I was suffering with rheumatism and kidney trouble and my stomach was out of shape," Mrs. Watkins continued. "I'd have severe pains in my back and for a number of years I've been bothered with pains around my waist. I've often have to take some strong medicine to deaden the pains. I've just now finished my first bottle of Trenton and it certainly has helped me a whole lot. For the past few days I haven't been bothered with the pains around my heart. My stomach has ceased to bother me and I don't have the pains in my back now. In short, I feel better in every way. I'm going to continue taking Trenton and I'm sure it will eventually completely relieve me of my troubles."

Mrs. Watkins is but one of thousands of cases where Trenton has proven beyond the question of a doubt that it is an unsurpassed combination of stomach, liver, kidney, and blood-purifying, cathartic, and liver-cleansing and the like as well as a splendid reconstructive agent, system purifier and body invigorant.

Trenton is now being introduced and explained in Portsmouth at Warner Brothers' drug store.

Dear Dolly Wise—I notice a family of children out on the hill top which is treated simply awful. Every time we drive past this place the children are in a dirty, filthy yard and their clothes are ragged and dirty. To whom could we go to have their condition bettered?

Dear Miss Wise—I am sixteen years old and have been going to school. Last term I was in the eighth grade. I would like to go on with my education, but my folks say that they can't spare me because there is too much work. In the winter months there is not so much to do. Would it time?

My brother would like to go, too, but he is needed on the farm also. It is impossible for him and in a way he is jealous when I go, although he went a year, too.

Sometimes at home I am maltreated until I can't stand it any longer. I can't even associate with my own sex and I haven't any nice clothes to wear. The only outing I get is to go to church on Sunday, and there I am embarrassed about my clothes.

I know I could have nice clothes if I could work out, but I can't be spared, they say, and I know I cannot leave for I am not of age.

Can you suggest what I can do to go on with my education?

ANNIE.
You certainly should have more schooling since you want it so much. Have a plain talk with the principal of your school, or with your teacher. If you attend a country school, and see what can be done to enable you to go on with your education.

Dear Dolly Wise—We are girls of eighteen and nineteen and we are going with young men of twenty-one and twenty-two. They have talked of marriage, but have never proposed to us. We have gone with them for some time. Do you think they intend to marry us or not?

The young men are too young to think seriously of marriage. They are enjoying your company, but probably consider marriage as something desirable for the future. You girls are too young to marry, also. Regard the young men as good friends and do not permit them to be lovers until engaged.

Report Of Examiner Concerning The City Auditor's Office

Recommends Changes To Facilitate System

The following is a continuation of the report as submitted by the examiner, who some time ago completed his work of making a thorough examination into the affairs of the city. The report concerns the city auditor's office:

AUDITING COLLECTIONS OF OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS

Section 4284, General Code, Provides In Part:

"At the end of each fiscal year, or oftener if required by council, the auditor shall examine and audit the accounts of all officers and departments."

Under the provisions of the law as above quoted, the auditor is required to audit the accounts of each officer and department at least once a year, and more often if deemed necessary. So far as ascertainable the provision of the statutes has never been complied with by the auditing department of the city.

It is very important that the chief accounting officer of the city make a detailed check and examination of all collecting agencies of the city to determine if all of the revenue rightly accruing to the city is being properly accounted for. No official is in better position to ascertain the correctness of reports of revenue than the city auditor, as he is more or less familiar with the source of such revenue.

A comparison of stub receipts with cash book entries or reports of collections, does not always determine as to the accuracy of the actual revenue that may be collected by such as are authorized to make collections on behalf of the city. There are many ways by which a municipality may be deprived of its revenue and the same not detected by the check or receipt stubs with cash journal entries, hence the importance of a frequent detailed check of collecting agencies by the auditor, is apparent.

AUTHORIZATION OF COLLECTORS OF PUBLIC REVENUE

It has been held by the courts of the state that in order that the bonds or surety of a collector of public revenue may be held liable, should the principal default in the accounting for the revenue collected by him, it is necessary that the collector be properly authorized to make the collections.

That a collector may have the proper authority to receive public revenue is essential, that the appointing authority enter in his journal of proceedings, the name of the appointee, the date of appointment, the position to which appointed and a full outline of the duties of such position. As an officer only officially speaks through his journal it becomes necessary that his official orders and acts be recorded and this is especially true as to appointments wherein the appointees are charged with the collection of public revenues.

It is the duty of the auditor, when the names of such appointees are certified to him, to ascertain if the proper record has been made of their appointment and their duties prescribed. If it is found that the appointing authority has not acted in accordance with law then, in order that the public funds may be properly protected, it is the duty of the auditor to demand that an official record be made of such appointment and the duties of the appointee fully set forth.

DEPOSITS OF COLLECTIONS OF PUBLIC REVENUE

It was noted in the audit that, save in the water works department, all collections are deposited monthly. While in the water works department the collections are placed in the depository at frequent intervals, especially during the main collecting periods, yet such deposits are not made through pay-in order of the auditor, the water works collector monthly procuring a pay-in order representing the aggregate of the deposits for the month.

Section 263, General Code, provides in part:

"Every public officer and employee whose duty it is to collect or receive payments due the public shall deposit all public moneys collected or received by him with the treasurer of the taxing district once every twenty-four hours."

The only exceptions from the general provisions of the statutes as above set forth, are the collections in the water works department and the mayor's department; Section 2900, General Code, stipulating that money collected for water works purposes shall be deposited weekly with the treasurer, and Section 4270, General Code, providing that all fines and forfeitures, and all moneys received by the mayor in his official capacity, shall be by him paid into the treasury of the corporation weekly.

It will thus be noted that the law requires all collectors of public revenue to deposit the money received by them daily, except in the water works and mayor's departments, and they shall make deposits weekly.

The Attorney General held in an opinion under date of March 13, 1912, as follows: "As interest begins to run from the time at which the principal is due and payable, interest will be chargeable against the collector of public revenue from the date which the statute provides for turning the money into the treasury. A public officer withholding moneys or parties dealing with such and receiving money from them, are presumed to know the law, and interest would run from date of receipt of said moneys or legally due. It is recommended that interest be chargeable in the case of public moneys so withheld, from the date of receipt of illegal payment or failure to turn over."

Such is the holding of the Attorney General, and since the city is receiving two and one-fourth per cent. interest on the deposit of its funds, the importance of the prompt deposit of its revenues is apparent.

In a decision of the court in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Argabright, a criminal case coming up from Montgomery County, it was held that the withholding of public revenue beyond the time which the statutes provide for its deposit in the public treasury constitutes embezzlement and renders the party so withholding the public funds liable to prosecution under such of the laws as apply to the collection of public moneys. It is the duty of the auditor to see that no officer or employee whose duty it is to collect public moneys has any business to keep such money in his possession for a longer period than is absolutely necessary to make deposit of same in the treasury. The money so collected belongs to the public, and the withholding of it means a loss of interest to the public.

If the collectors of public revenue do not deposit public moneys collected by them as frequently as is required by law, then under the opinion of the Attorney General, it is the duty of the auditor to exact interest for all deferred deposits from the time that they should have been deposited until the date of actual deposit.

DEPOSITS THROUGH PAY-IN ORDERS

Save in the water works department, heretofore alluded to, no money is deposited in the city treasury except through pay-in order issued by the auditing department. The auditor should not permit the collector of water works revenue to deposit any of its collections until he has first procured a pay-in order. The treasurer of the city, is also collector of the water works revenue, but the revenue thus received is in his capacity as water works collector and not as treasurer, hence as treasurer he has no more right to receive such money without a pay-in order than has he the right to receive the money from the mayor's court without such pay-in order. The treasurer in receiving and placing in the depository bank the water works revenue without pay-in order, has in his possession as treasurer moneys with which he is not charged by the auditor.

The treasurer should only have in his custody such funds with which he is charged by the auditor's records. The auditor's records are a check on the treasurer, and if the treasurer is permitted to receive funds without the knowledge of the auditor, then, to such an extent, the auditor's records fail in their mission. The auditor should demand a discontinuance of the practice in vogue as to the method of deposit of water works revenue.

The object of the issuance of pay-in orders is not only for the purpose of enabling the auditor to make a proper charge against the treasurer but also for the purpose of directing the treasurer as to the fund to which credit shall be given, thus preventing a conflict between the records of the auditor and treasurer as to fund accounts.

All receipts issued by the treasurer are countersigned by the auditor after having been issued by the treasurer. The auditor should never countersign the treasurer's receipt in blank or in advance of the signing of the same by the treasurer. The purpose of the countersigning of the treasurer's receipt by the auditor is the notification of the auditor that the treasurer has received the money as stipulated in the pay-in order. The auditor should never charge the treasurer with the amount of a pay-in order until he has countersigned the receipt of the treasurer, as to do otherwise the auditor might charge the treasurer with money he did not receive, as the issuance of a pay-in order does not necessarily mean that the party receiving the same will make deposit accordingly.

WARRANTS-VOUCHERS

The warrants issued by the auditor are made payable to order, thus requiring the endorsement of the payee before being honored by the treasurer through the depository bank. At the time the warrants are issued the party in whose favor they are issued is required to receipt the voucher.

A voucher form, having a detailed classification of appropriation heads, is printed thereon, is in use, and proper notation is made thereunder. The voucher form for each fund, and in some instances the departments, is distinguished by a distinct color.

It was noted that in many instances a full description of the attached invoice was transcribed on the voucher; this is unnecessary unless the invoice lacks the proper data and an explanation is necessary for its verification.

The vouchers are filed consecutively as to numbers instead of being filed numerically as to funds or departments. The audit of the disbursements may be greatly expedited if vouchers are filed numerically as to funds or departments.

MONTHLY COMPARISON OF ACCOUNTS WITH TREASURER AND FILING OF MONTHLY REPORTS WITH MAYOR

The auditor and treasurer in a way compare accounts monthly and correct any errors that may be disclosed, but neither official files a monthly statement with the mayor showing the balances in the various funds at the close of the preceding month.

Section 3505, General Code, Provides:

"The auditor or clerk, and the treasurer in all municipal corporations shall make up monthly, a statement of the balances in all funds and accounts in their offices, as they exist at the close of business on the last day in the month, and such officers shall forthwith compare such statements, correct any error, and at once forward a copy thereof to the mayor, who shall keep them for public inspection."

The provisions of the section quoted as mandatory and should be observed. The object of the law is the affording of better protection to the public funds. Had this law been fully observed in the city of Keaton a defalcation in excess of $20,000.00 undoubtedly would have been prevented and the city saved from the loss of its public funds. The attention of the auditor and treasurer has been called to the necessity of complying and filing such reports, and assurance has been given that the law in this particular will henceforth be fully observed.

We would suggest that a proper record be procured in which to permanently transcribe such reports and also to record the monthly outstanding warrants. The time saved in the preparation of the schedule and the making of the annual audit would more than compensate for the cost of the record and the labor in making the entries.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS DERIVED FROM TAX LEVY

The data on file with the auditor disclosed that the revenue received from the tax levy has been distributed among the various funds on account of which the levy was made, in accordance with the amount specified on the county auditor's semi-annual tax settlement statements. The county auditor assures us that the amount stipulated as having been collected on account of each fund was based upon the rate of mill levy for the specific purpose. This is a proper distribution of such revenue and there should be no variance therefrom.

PAYMENTS IN CONTRAVENTION OF SECTION 4237-2, GENERAL CODE

The records of council disclose that at various times ordinances were passed fixing the salary and compensation of certain officers and employees of the municipality. A careful comparison of said ordinances with the records of the city auditor, as to the amount of the salaries and compensations paid thereunder, disclosed that the provisions of the statutes were not fully observed and in some instances payments were made before the ordinance became operative under the law and in some instances the ordinance of findings on said account. No compensation should be paid to officers or employees under any ordinance until the full thirty day period has elapsed for the expiration of the thirty day period. No doubt the authority of council to make a salary ordinance an emergency measure, and we believe it advisable for the auditor to fully protect himself, through legal opinion of the solicitor or some one higher in authority, before making payment under such ordinance.

No salary ordinance can legally be retroactive. The auditor in order to conserve the public funds as well as to protect himself and his household from liability, should refuse to pay any compensation until the ordinance fixing the same has become operative under the provision of section 4237-2, General Code.

PAYMENTS IN CONTRAVENTION OF SECTIONS 3908, 4207, 12910, 12911 AND 12912, GENERAL CODE

The records would indicate a few payments having been made in contravention of the law as expressed in certain of the above legislative sections. The amount involved is inconsequential, hence no finding is returned at this time.

A severe penalty is attached to the violation of these laws, and no officer can afford for the meagre profit he may receive from supplies sold the city, to jeopardize his liberty and disgrace himself and family.

The city auditor being liable to the city for amounts involved in payments made contrary to the provisions of said laws, it behooves him to be on the alert to forestall any such claims and refuse payment if presented.

It is not necessary that an officer or appointee receive salary or compensation in order to bring him under the inhibition of Sections 12910 and 12912, General Code, if he holds a position of trust it is sufficient; neither does the amount involved affect the result.

PAYMENT FOR LEGAL ADVERTISING

The law provides that ordinances of a general nature, or ordinances and resolutions providing for improvements, must be published, all other ordinances and resolutions do not require publication.

Ordinances providing for the appropriation of moneys; for the levying of assessments; for the transfer of funds; for the acceptance of plans; for the issuance of certificates of indebtedness; for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the collection of special assessments do not require publication. The auditor should refuse to disburse the public funds in payment of any claim for the publication of an ordinance or resolution, or any other matter that does not require publication.

Advertisement should not be paid for at so much per line nor at a price exceeding that provided in Section 6311, General Code.

While there has been some advertisement not required by law, yet we are pleased to note that there has been no overcharge on account of measurement. No claim for legal publication should be paid unless it is accompanied by the proofs of publication, and such proof should be attached to and filed with the invoice.

PAYMENT OF CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS ISSUED UNDER SECTION 3913 C. C.

Certificates of indebtedness issued under the provisions of Section 3913, General Code, and in anticipation of the general revenue fund, cannot be made to run for a longer period than six months and are a lien against the first semi-annual tax settlement following their issue. The sums so anticipated are appropriated by statute for the payment of such certificates. The Attorney General has held in an opinion under date of June 24, 1915, as follows:

"It may be observed that in view of the provisions for the payment of such certificates of indebtedness they should, in every case where authorized to be issued, be made to mature immediately subsequent to the next succeeding semi-annual settlement, and that the city auditor and his successors are liable for the disbursement of any part of the fund by law appropriated for the payment of such certificates or any misplacement thereof."

There should, therefore, be no failure to promptly pay certificates of indebtedness when they mature, a failure to do so renders the auditor liable to a finding for diversion of funds.

We are pleased to note that all certificates of indebtedness have been promptly paid when due. The auditor keeps a record of all note and certificate issues with full data in relation thereto.

AUDITOR'S ANNUAL REPORT

The auditor's annual report for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1918, was published in pamphlet form, 620 copies being furnished by the Kuhn-Patterson Printing Company, at a cost of $275.00.

No report was prepared by the auditor or published, for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1917.

Under the provisions of Section 4257, General Code, the auditor is required, on or before the third Monday in October of each year, to make and enter in the record book of the city a detailed statement of all the receipts and expenditures, the number and amount of bonds issued, and for what purpose for the preceding year, stating from what source the money was received, to whom paid, for what purpose expended, and showing the exact condition of the several funds and all outstanding liabilities, to whom due and for what purpose.

Section 4258, General Code, Provides, In Part:

"The auditor shall cause a copy of such detailed statement, which shall be approved by the mayor, to be posted at the places of holding elections for officers of the corporation, on the morning of the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November each year. If the municipality has a population of over two thousand, the auditor shall have the statement published once in a newspaper published or of general circulation in the corporation, at least five days prior to such date. An auditor who refuses or neglects to conform to the provisions of this and the next preceding section shall be fined by the mayor or police court as the case may be, not more than thirty dollars or less than twenty-five dollars for the use of the corporation."

Under said section the auditor does not have to prepare the statement as provided in Section 4257, General Code, or to have the same published in a newspaper, if he publishes annually a detailed statement, such as provided for in Section 4258, General Code, in book form.

The object of the law is to give publicity to the financial transaction of the city. Taxpayers are entitled to know the source of the revenue of their city and for what purposes it has been expended.

The publication of such a statement, either in a newspaper or in pamphlet form, is mandatory and not optional with the auditor. Indeed the auditor subjects himself to a penalty if he fails or neglects to have such report prepared and published. There can be no excuse for a non-compliance with the law.

MONTHLY STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

We direct the attention of the auditor to the provisions of Section 4256, General Code, which requires each officer and department to file with the auditor on the first Monday of each month detailed statements of their receipts and expenditures for the preceding month. This provision of the law is mandatory and the auditor should insist on a compliance therewith. There has been a compliance in so far as such reports have been filed as to receipts, but no such reports have been made of expenditures.

PRESCRIBING FORM OF ACCOUNTS TO BE KEPT BY OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS

Each officer and department, under the provisions of Section 4254, General Code, is required to keep a financial record of their receipts and disbursements, and it is the duty of the auditor to prescribe the form, subject to the approval of the Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices. In none of the offices and departments are the records kept such as are contemplated by law. Each officer and department should keep a cash journal record of receipts as well as a ledger account of disbursements classified as to appropriations. The various officers and departments are held strictly accountable for the contracting of obligations in excess of their available appropriations and funds, and without the keeping of proper records they have no means of knowing as to the condition of such appropriations and funds, hence, have not the protection that is essential if they desire to avoid liability.

That such records should be kept by the officers and departments is not for the purpose of formally complying with the law, but in order that proper protection may be afforded not only the city but those who are in charge.

A proper system of accounting should be immediately installed in each office and department.

THE PROPER CLOSING OF ACCOUNTS AT THE END OF MONTH

It has been and is the practice in the auditor's office to pay the obligations of the preceding month on or about the tenth of the succeeding month, and also to receive collections in the same manner. Such a practice has necessitated the keeping of the records and accounts open until such a time.

Such a practice is not only irregular but wholly uncalled for. On the last day of each month the books should be promptly closed whether or not the collectors have made deposit or the obligations of the month have all been paid.

Prior to the close of each fiscal year the auditor should give due notice that all collections must be deposited and all claims against the city presented before December 31st in order that proper settlement of the year's business may be made.

The auditor desires us that, beginning with the year 1919, the method as suggested will be followed.

In the foregoing we have set forth in detail under "Records, Accounts and Duties" the requirements of the law pertaining to the duties of the auditor, as affecting the accounting system and the procedure as to the protection of the rights of the city. We have entered somewhat in detail relative to these matters, having done so in order that the auditor may have full knowledge as to his official duties in the light of the law.

"I love England for its old ruins. America has no old ruins, except Bob in Follette and William Jennings Bryan."
The weakness of our Christian conscience allowed us to sit by and after no protest when 3,000,000 defenseless Armenians were tormented and killed by the Turks.

"The criminal law of America is a joke."
"We need a League of Nations before a League of Nations."
"The churches of this great country leave it to the fraternal orders to visit the sick, provide for widows and the hungry."
"It is no worse for professional gamblers to play for money than it is for a member of the church to play for a cut-glass dish or silk hose."

Huge Audience Greet Lecturer

The above statements are highlights from the address of Colonel Lou J. Beauchamp, who appeared before an immense audience of the Redpath Chautauqua last evening. He chose as his subject his celebrated "The 1919 Edition of the Sunny Side."

The speaker became acquainted with the large crowd in front of him by a series of humorously funny stories, that kept the audience continually laughing. Colonel Beauchamp has a way of bringing a lesson from each laugh he gets. From a happy woman in Indiana, who leads a life of comfortable enjoyment, he found the code of right living. It is: "Do not worry about the things you can help, or the things you cannot help."
Finding himself upon a basis of mutual understanding with the appreciative Portsmouth people present, the speaker of the evening settled down to his real message of the evening. Many startling facts were brought forth in the next half hour that caused the audience to wait expectantly for each conclusion.

"Do you know that the churches of the United States from the years 1906 to 1910, advanced in membership less than 2 percent? The United States, upholder of righteousness and the hope of the world, leads the world in murder. Italy, famous for the passionate temperament of its people, yielded this place to us three years ago. To every 1,000,000 people in this country, there are 339 murders. The percentage increase every year, and will keep on increasing until our criminal laws are revised, or made over entirely. Out of 14 convicted murderers in England, 12 were hanged. In Chicago, out of 248 convicted murderers only 2 were electrocuted. A clever lawyer can drive a coach and four through the loop holes in our criminal laws," said Colonel Beauchamp.

Many Murderers Are Under 21
"Seventy-five percent of the murderers in the U. S. are under 21 years of age. The boys as young as 12 years are the ones who kill for petty gain, not the older men. If I were the writer of 'The Melling Pot,' I would write another act since the war and put a lid on it. For the next 20 years we should allow no aliens to enter America who did not first sign an agreement to become a citizen. If there is not enough red in the star-spangled banner for some people, they should be made to see red in front of a firing squad."

"The churches in this country are losing out because the people will not go and listen any longer to lessons that fitted the world 2,000 years ago. They want to be twentieth century Christians with modern lessons from life. It is left to the fraternal orders, such as the Elks, K. of C., Moose, Eagles, etc., to take the place of the church in caring for the poor, the widows and the fatherless."

In his walk along "The Highway of Human Life," the speaker deplored the weakness of the Christian conscience of America that allowed the Turks spurred on by the Huns to exterminate from the world 3,000,000 defenseless Armenians. Acting on the theory that the home is the backbone of the nation, he called upon the parents present to preserve the sanctity of their homes and so safeguard their children and country. In scathing terms he ridiculed the mother who played cards in the evening and allowed the children to run about town unaccompanied.

Colonel Beauchamp's lecture will not soon be forgotten in this city. A thorough Christian himself, modern in every sense of the word, his earnest message for a reformed code of living made a personal appeal to all who were fortunate enough to hear him.

The afternoon performance of the Redpath Chautauqua, Monday, gave promise of wonderful things to come. The Althea Violin Chorus, aided by Miss Bonnie Brooks, entertainer, was

TRUCK AND AUTO IN COLLISION

A Scripps-Booth touring car owned by William Kirby of 1315 Robinson avenue was badly damaged about eight o'clock this morning when a truck owned and driven by George Lauder of New Boston collided with it at Ninth and Walter streets. Lauder was going out Walter toward the N. and

W. station and Miss Grace Kirby, driving the touring car, was going west on Ninth street.

The front end of the car was wrecked, the right front wheel being torn off, the right front part of the frame bent, radiator damaged, axle bent, and fender mashed. The machine was taken to the Reliable garage for repairs.

RUNS AWAY WITH CIRCUS; GLAD TO RETURN

A circus "career" that loomed up big for James Thomas, colored boy, when he left here Sunday morning early with Gentry Brothers circus was short-lived as he was found in Williamson, W. Va., Monday by his father, John Thomas of Sixteenth street and was soon on his way back to Portsmouth.

Thomas, who is about sixteen years old, spent considerable of his time around the circus Saturday when the show was in York park. He worked hard and with such earnest efforts that he did not have any trouble in "catching on" with the big boss.

His father and a brother, Bishop Thomas learned Sunday that the boy had left with the show and on obtaining information where the circus was scheduled to show Monday left for that city. A search for the circus grounds was successful and after a talk from the father the boy was willing to return home and give up his "show life."

adapted to the weather and certainly appreciated. Six charmingly frocked girls with their "singing" violins, appeared before the audience promptly at 5 o'clock and straightway captured its united heart, holding it in captivity until the final number. The young ladies, dressed in shepherdess costumes of a by-gone period looked as if they had just stepped from the design of a piece of Dresden china. Tiny pointed sleeves, daintily flowered bodices and flouncing caught in a butterfly bow at the waist, with a ruffled skirt of white, made up each costume.

Miss Brooks, a versatile entertainer, sang in Italian, French, and burlesque German. Accompanied by Miss Mary Anderson. Her dramatic impersonation of "Maiden Buttery" made a vivid impression. Dressed in a Japanese costume of black and rose, she was by turns quaintly lovable, tragically unhappy, and sublimely happy, as she led the audience through the life of the little maiden who "died with honor when she could no longer live with honor."

The program of the Althea Chorus was a delightful intermingling of violin, piano, and vocal music, besides occasional skits by Miss Brooks aided by the company.

The success they established in the afternoon followed them in the evening when they presented another varied musical program, as an introduction to the lecturer, Colonel Lou Beauchamp. The chorus consisted of Miss Mary Anderson, Beulah Marty, Bonnie Brooks, Gertrude Gravette, Gladys Eakely and Catherine McIntyre.

11 KILLED IN FALL OF DIRIGIBLE

Five Dead In The Nation's Capitol As Result Of Race Riot

CRASHES THROUGH BANK BUILDING AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 22.—Official investigation was started today by State Attorney MacKay Hoyne, to fix responsibility for the explosion and collapse of the dirigible which crashed through the roof of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank yesterday afternoon, killing eleven persons and injuring 26 others.

Seven employees of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, owners of the airship, have been detained pending a decision as to whether charges of criminal carelessness should be filed against them.

Among those detained are Jack Beutner, pilot of the dirigible, who escaped by jumping with a parachute; and W. C. Young, in charge of the aeronautic department of the Goodyear Company.

Of the eleven dead, nine were employees of the bank and two passengers in the airship. Five persons were in the airship at the time of the accident and three escaped. When the balloon crashed through the skylight of the bank at 5 o'clock, more than 200 employees, mostly girls, were at work.

The big balloon, with its five passengers, was making its maiden trip above the city in the interest of an amusement park.

According to witnesses, a spurt of flame appeared at the stern, above the engines. In a moment there was a puff of smoke and the flames attacked the big egg-shaped gas bag. Almost simultaneously four parachutes leaped from the airship. Three of the four were caught in the falling balloon and burned. His passenger, Carl Weaver, mechanic of Akron, O., plunging to death.

Carl Davenport, publicity man for the amusement park, and one time a sporting writer, did not jump from the machine. His body was hurled through the bank roof and burst to a crisp.

Harry Wacker, of Akron, O., chief mechanic of the dirigible, was one of those who came down alive. His back was broken, however, and he is not expected to live.

Milton G. Norton, a photographer, employed on a morning newspaper, also landed, but in doing so his legs were broken and his condition is critical.

H. A. Beutner, civilian pilot, was the only member of the ill-fated airship to land without injuries.

Five of the nine killed in the bank

FIND CLEWS IN MURDER CASE

CLEVELAND, O., July 22.—With return of a Lakewood detective from a trip out of town, Police Chief Christensen believes he has new clues which will establish proof of a conspiracy to murder Daniel Kuber, wealthy Lakewood publisher, and lead to the early arrest of both the instigator of the crime and the actual murderer.

The detective left Lakewood for three towns a few hours after Kuber succumbed to twenty-four stab wounds inflicted about midnight Friday. County Prosecutor Doerflinger, after a conference with Chief Christensen, stated that the information secured by the detective was likely to prove an important factor in the solution mystery.

Kuber was to be buried this afternoon.

MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

FREMONT, O., July 22.—Philip Corsetti, 44, former Akron storekeeper, was indicted for first degree murder yesterday by the Sandusky county grand jury. He was indicted jointly with Tony Elardo and Sam Corsetti, in connection with the murder of Mrs. Mary DeFrancisco, near here June 12.

SENATE TO CONTINUE DEBATE OF TREATY

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—A day of speech-making on the peace treaty was before the senate today. Four senators having given notice that they would make prepared addresses on the subject. Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, who was to appear first in support of the League of Nations, was to be followed by Senators Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, and Johnson, South Dakota, and Hickham, Kentucky, Democrats. Meanwhile, the foreign relations committee still had before it at today's meeting the request of President Wilson, that it approve immediate appointment of an American representative on the reparations commission, to serve provisionally while the treaty remains unsettled. Shafterman Lodge and most of the other Republican members oppose giving such approval while most of the Democratic members favor it.

PROHIBITIONISTS CLEAR WAY, WILL PASS BILL TODAY, WETS BLOCKED ALL ALONG

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Prohibition leaders in the house were ready to repeal the last attempt of the "wet" forces to defeat the prohibition enforcement measure, which for the last three weeks, had taken precedence over almost all other legislation and caused bitter debate.

Heading all of the bill for amendment was completed yesterday, but its passage was prevented by a parliamentary technicality. It was the order of business today, however, and efforts to force its passage as speedily as possible were expected in spite of announced opposition.

ENTIRE CREW LOST WHEN BRITISH DIRIGIBLE BURNS

The British non-rigid dirigible NS-11 recently went down in flames off Norfolk, England, and not a single member of the crew of twelve could be found. It is believed the dirigible was struck by lightning. Persons on shore heard two explosions. The ship had left Pulham, where the R-34 is quartered, to help a mine sweeper. During the war the NS-11 spotted submarines and mines. At one time it flew 1,000 miles over the North sea in 40 1/2 hours without a stop.

Negro Girl Kills Officer, May Declare Martial Law Until Situation Clears

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—which resulted last night in the killing of five persons and injury of at least fifty others. Several days of disorders, following a wave of attacks on white women, robberies and assaults by negroes, culminated in a series of race battles during the night hours with which the police were unable to cope fully, despite the aid of military provost guards. Seven wounded, eight or more seriously wounded, an unknown number slightly wounded or injured in the fighting and police stations and hospitals packed with others, are the results of the most disorderly times the national capital has seen probably since the civil war.

Although reinforced with provost guards of troops and squadrons of cavalry patrolling Pennsylvania avenue, police apparently were unable to cope with the situation as they were when during the celebrated demonstration of March 3, 1918, when the crowd completely overran them and all but needed the suffragists parading on Pennsylvania avenue.

The score of casualty in last night's fighting was largely in favor of the negroes, who, when the extra strong cordons of police and troops quieted Pennsylvania avenue and the downtown section transferred their activities to the lesser guarded districts.

From trolley cars and swiftly moving automobiles negro desperadoes in parties, singly and in pairs, rushed revolver shots into groups of whites wherever they found them, and all night there was scattered firing from houses in which negroes, terror-stricken, but not quelled, had barricaded themselves.

Today the local authorities are conferring with war department officials on measures to stop the rioting. Suggestions are being made that troops be brought in to thoroughly guard the city which the police maintain they are unable to do because of insufficient numbers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Proclamation of martial law may be necessary to end race rioting here, men wherever found.

Defective Bernard W. Thompson was seriously wounded by a negro in the same section of the city. For negro men are dead and several of the injured were reported fatal. Hurt this morning and at least 24 rioters were under arrest. The dead include Detective Sergeant Henry Wilson, shot through the heart by a negro girl when he entered a house from which she was firing indiscriminately into the street.

Although two troops of cavalry from Fort Meyer had been called out to patrol the streets, and 400 marines from Quantico and Washington machine gunners had been added to the provost guard as a precaution against disorders, the situation at times last night was more than the authorities could cope with.

Reserve squads of police and provost guards were being rushed through the streets of the city all night in answer to riot calls. Army motor trucks were stationed at the precinct headquarters with a squad of men armed with automatic rifles, assigned to each. More than 45 riot calls were turned in at one precinct alone between the hours of seven and a most an equal number.

While in the minor disorders of Sunday and Monday night, crowds of white men assumed the aggressive night's rioting was marked by general preparedness on the part of the negroes, who during the day purchased hundreds of revolvers, early in the evening formed into crowds in their own sections and attacked white men wherever found.

SOLD WHISKEY, ARRESTED

CLEVELAND, O., July 22.—The first Cleveland arrest for alleged violation of the year time prohibition law, was made yesterday when F. J. Klein, former wholesale liquor dealer, here, was taken before U. S. Commissioner J. C. Watersworth, charged with selling whiskey. Two witnesses, Thomas Clark and James A. Lawson, are held in the county jail. Federal agents charge these men bought three and one-half cases of bonded whiskey in half pint bottles at Klein's soft drink emporium, July 19, for $182.

Report Of Examiner Concerning The City Auditor's Office

Record Sale Of Tickets Marks Opening Day Of Chautauqua

Recommends Changes To Facilitate System

The following is a continuation of the report as submitted by the examiner, who some time ago completed his work of making a thorough examination into the affairs of the city. The report concerns the city auditor's office:

AUDITING COLLECTIONS OF OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS

Section 4284, General Code, provides in part: "At the end of each fiscal year, or oftener if required by council, the auditor shall examine and audit the accounts of all officers and departments."

Under the provisions of the law as above quoted, the auditor is required to audit the accounts of each officer and department at least once a year, and more often if deemed necessary. So far as ascertainable the provision of the statutes has never been complied with by the auditing department of the city.

It is very important that the chief accounting officer of the city make a detailed check and examination of all collecting agencies of the city to determine if all of the revenue rightly accruing to the city is being properly accounted for. No official is in better position to ascertain the correctness of reports of revenue than the city auditor, as he is more or less familiar with the source of such revenue.

A comparison of stub receipts with cash book entries, or reports of collections, does not always determine as to the accuracy of the actual revenue. That may be collected by such as are authorized to make collections on behalf of the city. There are many ways by which a municipality may be deprived of its revenue and the same not detected by the check or receipt stubs with cash journal entries, hence the importance of a frequent detailed check of collecting agencies by the auditor, is apparent.

AUTHORIZATION OF COLLECTORS OF PUBLIC REVENUE

It has been held by the courts of the state that in order that the bondsman or surety of a collector of public revenue may be held liable, should the principal default in the accounting for the revenue collected by him, it is necessary that the collector be properly authorized to make the collections.

That a collector may have the proper authority to receive public revenue is essential that the appointing authority enter in his journal of proceedings, the name of the appointee, the date of appointment, the position to which appointed and a full outline of the duties of such position. As an officer who officially speaks through his journal it becomes necessary that his official orders and acts be recorded and this is especially true as to appointments wherein the appointees are charged with the collection of public moneys.

It is the duty of the auditor, when the names of such appointees are certified to him, to ascertain if the proper record has been made of their appointment and their duties prescribed. If it is found that the appointing authority has not acted in accordance with law then, in order that the public funds may be properly protected, it is the duty of the auditor to demand that an official record be made of such appointment and the duties of the appointee fully set forth.

DEPOSITS OF COLLECTIONS OF PUBLIC REVENUE

It was noted in the audit that, save in the water works department, all collections are deposited monthly. While in the water works department the collections are placed in the depository at frequent intervals, especially during the main collecting periods, yet such deposits are not made through payment in order of the auditor, the water works collector monthly procuring a pay-in order representing the aggregate of the deposits for the month.

Section 239, General Code, provides in part:

"Every public officer and employee whose duty it is to collect or receive payments due the public shall deposit all public moneys collected or received by him with the treasurer of the taxing district once every twenty-four hours."

The only exceptions from the general provisions of the statutes as above set forth, are the collections in the water works department and the mayor's department; Section 2400, General Code, stipulating that money collected for water works purposes shall be deposited weekly with the treasurer, and Section 3276, General Code, providing that all fines and forfeitures, and all moneys received by the mayor in his official capacity, shall be by him paid into the treasury of the corporation weekly.

It will thus be noted that the law requires all collectors of public revenue to deposit the money received by them daily, except in the water works and mayor's departments, and they shall make deposits weekly.

The Attorney General held in an opinion under date of March 13, 1912, as follows:

"As interest begins to run from the time at which the principal is due and payable, interest will be chargeable against the collector of public revenue from the date which the statute provides for turning the money into the treasury. A public officer withholding moneys or parties dealing with such and receiving money from them are presumed to know the law, and interest would run from date of receipt of said moneys or legally due. It is recommended that interest be chargeable in the case of public moneys so withheld, from the date of receipt of illegal payment or failure to turn over."

Such is the holding of the Attorney General, and since the city is receiving two and one-fourth per cent interest on the deposit of its funds, the importance of the prompt deposit of its revenues is apparent.

In a decision of the court in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Argabright, a criminal case coming up from Montgomery County, it was held that the withholding of public revenue beyond the time which the statutes provide for its deposit in the public treasury constitutes embezzlement and renders the party so withholding the public funds liable to prosecution under such offense. No officer or employee whose duty it is to collect public moneys has any business to keep such money in his possession for a longer period than is absolutely necessary to make deposit of same in the treasury. The money so collected belongs to the public, and the withholding of it means a loss of interest to the public.

If the collectors of public revenue do not deposit public moneys collected by them as frequently as is required by law, then, under the opinion of the Attorney General, it is the duty of the auditor to exact interest for all deferred deposits from the time that they should have been deposited until the date of actual deposit.

DEPOSITS THROUGH PAY-IN ORDERS

Save in the water works department, heretofore all public moneys deposited in the city treasury except through pay-in order issued by the auditing department. The auditor should not permit the collector of water works revenue to deposit any of its collections until he has first procured a pay-in order. The treasurer of the city is also collector of the water works revenue, but the revenue thus received is in his capacity as water works collector and not as treasurer, hence as treasurer he has no more right to receive such money without a pay-in order than he has the right to receive the money from the mayor's department without such pay-in order. The treasurer in receiving and paying in the deposits from the water works revenue without pay-in order, has in his possession as treasurer moneys with which he is not charged by the law.

The treasurer should only have in his custody such funds with which he is charged by the auditor's records. The auditor's records are a check on the treasurer, and if the treasurer is permitted to receive funds without the knowledge of the auditor, then, to such an extent, the auditor's records fall in their mission. The auditor should demand a distribution of the practice in venue as to the method of deposit of water works revenue.

The object of the issuance of pay-in orders is not only for the purpose of enabling the auditor to make a proper charge against the treasurer but also for the purpose of directing the treasurer as to the time at which funds shall be given, thus preventing a conflict between the records of the auditor and treasurer as to fund accounts.

CAMPAIGN OPENED TO SECURE TONNAGE SURVEY FOR OHIO SHIP CANAL; SHIPPERS TO GET BUSY

That the matter of tonnage will be an important factor in deciding the route of the proposed government canal was emphasized at a meeting of shippers held in the Assembly Room of the Security Bank building Monday afternoon.

Alan N. Jordan, one of the vice-presidents of The Great Lakes and Ohio River Waterways Association, presided over the meeting and after telling what had already been done and what remained to be done in the campaign to construct the Federal canal route is the most feasible and practical one.

Mr. Jordan explained that the government had appropriated $250,000 to cover the cost of making surveys and of the four routes proposed he said that he had been advised by Col. Lansing Belsky, U. S. engineer, that two of the proposed routes will be eliminated and that only two actual field surveys will be made.

Mr. Jordan then pointed out the three important factors which will determine the location of the proposed canal, namely, the cost of construction; cost of operation and tonnage that would move over any proposed route. He then told of the campaign to secure a tonnage survey for the local route and his statement that much depends on the shippers making their views as to the entire route to be kept in the light. He impressed upon local shippers the importance of getting busy and do fast work in furnishing him with statistics on both in and out bound freight as the report must be in the hands of the Federal authorities by August 15.

Mr. Jordan asserted that the canal was the biggest project ever started in the United States and he said that water would solve the future problem of freight transportation.

All shippers present were furnished with blank reports and many promised to assist in securing figures on freight tonnage in this territory. These reports may be mailed to Mr. Jordan.

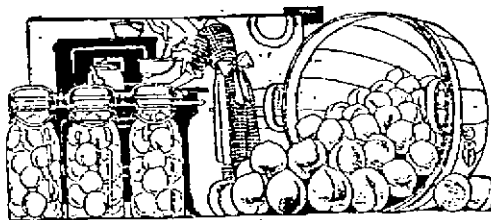

NO SWIMMING CLASS TODAY

There will not be a Boy Scout swimming class held today, as the river is too high. The classes will be resumed as soon as possible, according to Scout Executive Edward S. Gilliland. The boys are deriving a great deal of pleasure from these classes and are usually impatient with the old Ohio when high water makes swimming dangerous.
